Tree Lot Business. Kinda slow this year. Economy, probably. But we will have some profit to share with the Y and Camp Willson. Some outstanding events in the past weeks:

First day - Rain - Troy and John soaked to the skin

Sullivan and Sullivan - accept a $45 tip

Tuesday, 8th. Dan does not make it to the lot. First time in history.

Wednesday - James offers to cover for Dan rest of the season. winds up to 50 mph.

John's tree ties do the job.

Thurs. - more winds and 17 degrees. Cathouse got up to 45 degrees.

Friday - Y Staff does great job first shift. Leon and Bob finish out the day.

Saturday - Sold 40 trees.

Sunday - rain again. Lew cashiered. John repaired chain saw

Monday - Ron tried to repair chain saw. Took it home.

Tuesday - Weather halfway decent.

Wednesday - Cold again but sold 14 trees.

Thursday - Black Saw fix-time again. Bob puts new cord on black saw.

Friday - Cool, but clear. At least no rain. Steve working on saw.

Saturday - Good staff. Bert cashiered. Sold 22 trees. 2" of snow on ground.

Sunday - More white stuff. Chuck mans the lot.

All Season - Cookies and coffee in copious quantities brought out by the Y Staff. Big Thanks.

Clean up of Lot. Scott has scheduled Saturday, 26th, 8 am, as Clean-Up-Day.

Give us two hours of your time, please to make the work go faster. A big crew makes the work lighter for everyone.

Sally's Alley

The bear's big appetite

Caused it to take a bite.

It opened wide,

Ate Joe's left side,

But now Joe seems all right.
