... TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE DUTY THAT ACCOMPANIES EVERY RIGHT...

On Higher Ground:

"Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh"

-Galatians 5:16

Paul gives crucial advice by which to live. He encourages the Galatians to live guided by the Holy Spirit, that is, wisely, shrewdly, and honestly. He also encourages the Galatians to commit themselves to the model and the teachings of God in Jesus Christ. By living a Christ-like life, one lives as an example for others and for oneself.

In ways we will never know, our actions and words tell who we are. We can lead by example in what we say, in how we do, and by how we relate to others. Leading others to Christ begins with us: how we live and relate to our fellow human beings. Thought, actions, and speech can be the strongest examples of whether a person is whom that person claims to be. Following the example of Paul results in a life that glorifies Jesus Christ. Paul's example compels us to live a life of caring, sharing, and serving—living by the Spirit.
