Nov 07 Members of the Southdale Y's Mens Club dined Monday evening on another fine meal of Swedish Meat Balls, cabbage salad, boiled potatoes and gravy provided by Bill Sjolund; Dove Bars were served by Paul Crockett for dessert.

Following dinner, members sang the Y's Mens Grace and recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Don Peterson provided devotions, entitled "What Have We Done today?" See page 2.

Duane Lundquist presided over the meeting in the absence of President Paul Elofson. The business meeting focused on final details for the Christmas Tree Kickoff Dinner next Monday evening, November 12th, at 7500 York Ave S. To date, 34 members, spouses and guests are expected to attend the event, which will begin with dinner at 6 p.m., followed by entertainment in the Social room. Cost: $16.00 per person; choice of turkey or salmon.

The tree lot will be set up Saturday morning, November 17th, beginning at 9 a.m. The first delivery of Christmas trees will arrive Wednesday, November 14th, followed by a second load on November 17th. The tree lot sign-up sheet is now available, so come prepared next week to commit your time in writing; another opportunity will be available at the Kickoff Dinner.

The club will provide another Y Diner this Saturday, November 10th, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. for the Youth Sports at the Southdale YMCA. Brats, hotdogs, chips and juice will be served. Members helping with this event include Bill Wilkening, Harold and Flo Westerberg and Paul Crockett.

Paul Crockett brought John Walstrom to the dinner as a guest and possible new member. John is a retired airline mechanic, having worked for four different airlines (most recently Northwest) over a 45 year period.

Don Peterson provided an entertaining program for the evening—a 45 minute DVD entitled “As Long As We Both Shall Laugh,” featuring Russian comedian Yakov Smernoff.

*What Have We done today?
We shall do so much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in a princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer,
But what did we speak today?*

*We shall be so kind in the after while,
But what have we been today?
We shall bring each lonely life a smile,
But what have we brought today?
We shall give to truth a grander birth,
And to steadfast faith a deeper worth,
We shall feed the hungering souls of earth,
But who have we feed today?*

*We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build us mansions in the sky,
But what have we built today?
'Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask,
"What have we done today?"*
